Jointly organised by

Deptt. Of Kayachikitsa, Rishikul Govt. Ayurvedic PG College, Haridwar

Dear friends,

After a gap of around 2 years due to Covid-19 restrictions we are planning to meet at Haridwar to restart our academic activities in physical mode in the form of National conference. Apart from gaining academic knowledge, hope we all will be blessed by almighty God on the holy land of Haridwar.

The importance of Agni i.e. biological fire is not only described for maintenance of good health but it is highly responsible for development of most disease. Therefore we can not treat them without its proper correction. In this regard any much quantum of discussions over it are less. Keeping all these things in mind we planned to organise a 2 days long discussion over it. In this conference we will try to cover the topics related to this, like Concept of Agni in Ayurveda along with its relation to disease production.

About Haridwar...

One of the holiest pilgrimages in India, Haridwar, or the 'gateway to gods', is located where Ganga, the sacredst of all Indian rivers, enters the Indo-Gangetic plains. Located at the foothills of the Himalayas, Haridwar is a city of temples and ashrams and its pious ambience envelops everyone. Haridwar is one of the four holy Indian cities that host the Kumbh Mela, a pious gathering of millions of Hindu devotees every 12 years. The Ardh Kumbh is organised here every six years. It also hosts the Kanwar mela every year during the rainy season. The 'Panch Tirth' or the five pilgrimages located within the periphery of Haridwar, are Gangadwara (Har Ki Pauri), Kushwart (Ghat), Kankhal, Bilwa Tirtha (Mansa Devi Temple) and Neel Parvat (Chandi Devi). Haridwar serves as the gateway to the Char Dham of Uttarakhand as well.

An ancient city, Haridwar's roots are steeped deep in culture and traditions of the ancient Vedic times, and there are several institutions here imparting traditional knowledge of wellness. If you want to know more and experience the ancient methods of healing, there are many certified Ayurvedic clinics in Haridwar that you can visit. Ashrams also offer sessions in Ayurveda, meditation and yoga. Every morning and evening, the ghats (stepped banks of a river) of River Ganga witnesses the blissful Ganga aarti, which attracts devotees and tourists. The evening ritual being more popular, it makes for a mesmeric sight to see the river being venerated with loud and rhythmic chants and tall lamps, their lights lightening up the darkening waters. It is a spectacular sight as thousands of small diya (earthen lamps) are set afloat on the river.
